Academic Decision-Making Process

Academic decision making, at most of the times, is limited to development of curricula, statutes, regulations for conduct of teaching and examinations in various academic programs. Any subsequent revision or amendment in these curricula, statutes, and regulations follows the identical process.

Curriculum, Statutes, Regulations

(Both Undergraduate & Postgraduate)

Board of Studies (Medicine/Dentistry/Nursing/Pharmacy/ Allied Health Sciences)

Undergraduate Programs

Postgraduate Programs

Advanced Studies & Research Board

Academic Council

Syndicate (Limited to statutes of an academic programs)

Board of Governors

(For framing and amending Regulations)